Students will show ability to apply knowledge of mathematics in electrical engineering system analysis and design.

Technology

Students will show the ability to use modern tools for engineering practice in electrical engineering.

Critical Thinking

Students will show ability to select and evaluate different versions of design with various design methodologies and technologies.

Communication

Students will demonstrate the ability to write effectively.

X=courses where outcomes are assessed/taught.